PIRELLI CONFIRMED AS A "TOP 1%" COMPANY IN S&P GLOBAL'S 2026 SUSTAINABILITY YEARBOOK, THE ONLY TYRE MANUFACTURER WORLDWIDE

The highest award is based on the analysis of the sustainability performance of over 9,200 companies assessed by S&P Global

Milan, 18 February 2026 – In 2026 Pirelli has once again confirmed its place among the companies included in the "Top 1%" of S&P Global's Sustainability Yearbook 2026 where it is the only tyre manufacturer worldwide to have achieved this recognition.

Inclusion in the "Top 1%" of the 2026 Sustainability Yearbook represents the highest level of recognition provided by S&P Global and is based on the analysis of the ESG (Environmental, Social and Governance) performances of more than 9,200 companies globally.

The result reflects the score achieved by Pirelli in S&P Global's 2025 Corporate Sustainability Assessment, when the company earned 86 points, the highest both in the Auto Components sector and in the Automobiles sector.

Giovanni Tronchetti Provera, Executive Vice President Sustainability, New Mobility and Motorsport at Pirelli, stated: "Pirelli's confirmation in the Top 1% of the 2026 Sustainability Yearbook represents a great validation of the company's journey. Innovative development and responsible growth specifically guide our operational choices: continuous investment in technology, transparent management of the entire value chain, and a strong focus on safety, skills and people development. This approach strengthens our competitiveness and our ability to create long-term value for all our stakeholders."
